

THE LAST RITES

Introduction

On the morning of 9th March, the police received a shocking confession from a man named Arvind Mehta. When officers reached the location mentioned in the confession, they discovered a disturbing scene that appeared to be connected to a ritualistic setup. The room contained several objects, documents, and personal items that seemed to hold pieces of a larger story.

You have been assigned as investigators to examine this scene. By carefully observing the clues placed around the room and connecting the information they reveal, you must follow the trail step by step to understand what led to the confession.

Physical clues:

Ritualistic circle with satanic symbols

4 hearts around the ritual circle

Surgical Instruments

News clippings

Best gynac award

Ultrasounds

Journal

Jars with baby parts in them and 4 of them having fingers with marriage ring on it

Message on wall in blood: "GOD DID NOT SAVE THEM. NOW, ONLY HE CAN"

Treasure hunt Clues:

Clue1: “The first heart that I ever loved still lives in a frame” (heart to photo)

Clue 2: “I swore an oath to protect life... yet the life closest to me slipped away.

The answer lies where my oath met steel.” (to instruments)

Clue 3: jumbled letters in surgical instruments spelling NEWS (to newspaper)

Clue4: Certain letters circled in the article spell “AWARD.” (to award)

Clue 5: the award has “Every life matters.” Written on it with the hospital logo. “The world celebrated me that day. That night, I wrote the truth.” - written next to the date of award (leading to journal with the same logo and quote).

Clue 6: Inside the journal is written “ I lost them both- “One never saw the world. The other could not bear to stay in it.” Then, “they came to me with theirs’ and I couldn’t let them have it too. So the SCANS are not the only thing I had to take...”
